Dreaming Alone

Lee DeWyze

wake up remembering just what she said memories of things that never even happened run through your headI keep the shades pulled tight to let the light in my eyes have all been closed seeing only what ifbut when you said goodbye is what you meant goodnight
'til tomorrow
if it's me in your dreams
i'd sleep the day away
cause when you say goodbye
what I hear is goodnight So keep it in the nightthe fight's in the love and aftermath and me melting into you melting into the place you dreamt last don't leave the fear eats me away the fear you're dreaming alonebut when you said goodbye
so don't leave me goodnightbut when you said goodbye is what you mean goodnight
is it me in your dreams? i'll sleep the day away but when you say goodbye
but when you,
you don't let it leave your mind
