Easy Money

Brad Paisley

I remember working on a rooftop
In the hot summer sun all day
Now I work two hours a night
It feels a lot more like play'Fore Kenny joined the band he used to hang dry wall
Ben worked down at Valentino's
So when you see us up here and think man they're lucky
You don't have to tell us 'cause we knowYeah, we're laughing all the way to the bank
'Cause it all just seems so funny
A bunch of guys like us in a big tour bus
Making that easy moneyDesperado hauled cattle, Grady drove trucks
Justin had a hot dog stand
Kevin sold records and Brent sold shoes
And Gary was a garbage manYeah, but now we're laughing all the way to the bank
'Cause it all just seems so funny
A bunch of guys like us in a big tour bus
Making that easy moneyI used to have an ex-girlfriend that didn't understand
She said, "Boy you're going nowhere fast
You oughta get a real job why don't you quit that band"
Now she can kiss my backstage passYeah, 'cause we're laughing all the way to the bank
'Cause it all just seems so funny
A bunch of guys like us in a big tour bus
Making that easy moneyYeah, you know we're laughing all the way to the bank
'Cause it all just seems so funny
A bunch of guys like us in a big tour bus
Making that easy money
