Broken

Blahzay Roze

Psychopathic
You all hate me and i hate myself
Woke up this morning fuckin waste of pills
Havent seen myself in over 7 years cover my face so i avoid the mirrors
Already smashed them up
The glass it cuts im like a sinking ship its hard to swim when im all alone an i got no one here to depend on Cemented feet drag thru the street everyones fuckin looking
The anger thickens i can feel depression as its cookin
No emtion on my face cuz i conceal the pain
Standing outside in the storm so i can feel the rain
Pourin down on my face i pretend there tears you know bcuz ive tried but i havent cried in many years
I hate myself
I loath myself
I should off myself
Why not im broken
