Tears Are In Your Eyes

The Antlers

You tell me summer's here and the time is wrong
You tell me winter's here
And your days are getting longTears are in your eyes
TonightYou tell me that you haven't slept in days
You tell me sleeping only makes your tired anywayTears are in your eyes
Tonight
Tears are in your eyes
Every nightAlthough you don't beleive me, you are strong
Darkness always turns into the dawn
And you won't even remember this for long
When it ends alrightPlease tell me how you know tomorrow staring at your shoesTears are in your eyes
Every night
Tears are in your eyes
Every night
Tears are in your eyes
Tonight
