It's Over Now (Sgt Slick's 2014 Filter Freaker)

Deborah Cox

Baby it's overTryin' to forget about
Ordinary thangs
Typical predictable
Baby I knew the end before we started
You had me feelin' like I owe you somethin'
Cause you were there in times when I had nothin'
But you threw it all away
With the shady things you doSo forgive me
For what I'm bout to say
And what I'm bout to do
I can't take no more
I know you ain't been true
Ain't got no love for youYou been cheatin' and tellin' me lies
You been creepin' while I'm sleepin' at night
And you been chasin' every girl in sight
And you been messin' around and lyin' down
It's over now X 2I ignored my intuition
And passed it off as a suspicion
But you were just so bold
You kept puttin' in my face
I can't deny I let you hurt meSo baby please forgive me
For what I'm bout to do
And what I'm bout to say
I can't take no more
I know you ain't been true
Ain't got no loveYou been cheatin' and tellin' me lies
You been creepin' while I'm sleepin' at night
And you been chasin' every girl in sight
And you been messin' around and lyin' down
It's over now X 2When you were down I helped to pick you up
But you didn't appreciate my love
Instead you kept lookin' for the one
Hopin' love could take my place
When all the while what your were searching for
Was in front of your face
Just forget it
You'll regret it
It's really over now
Just turn around

Don't watch me walk alongI ain't down no no no more
You been messin'You been cheatin' and tellin' me lies
You bee creepin' while I'm sleepin' at night
And you been chasin' every girl in sight
And you been messin' around and lyin' down
It's over now X 3
