So Bad

Making April

You were here when I wrote this one
So when you hear it you'll know that it's yours
You were high as a bird perched beside me listening closelyMesmerized by the words that I would sing to you through your headphones
Well you looked so damn cute in those headphonesJust a quick hello but you'd soon go
And I miss you so bad I miss you so so bad
And I need you so bad I need you so so bad I need you so badThese four just the same chords
I would use every time you would tell me,
Baby, write this one about meYou'd never catch me
I'm stealing last night's story oh
But I doubt you really cared at all, no not at all
You're the muse in my lifeWhen you leave I'll die
Will you keep me alive?
I miss you so bad I miss you so so bad
And I need you so bad I need you so so bad I need you so badAnd why do you come by if you're leaving?
Why do you come by if you're leaving?
And why do you give all the way in to take it back?
I need you so bad I miss you so bad I need you so bad yeah yeahI look right and you stare back
And I'm finding refuge in your eyes
There's nothing I wouldn't do right now to be sure I don't lose you this time
Cause I missed you so bad, I missed you so so bad
And I need you so bad I need you so so bad, I need you so bad
