Chain Of Love

Lou Gramm

I can't find, I can't find the words to rescue me but this time, this time I've got to make you seeYou, you were the one the only one who understands
Do you hear me?
Do you know what I need?
You've got to take me as I amSaying it once, I'll say it again
No chain of love on me
Saying it once, I'll say it again
No chain of love on meI can't lie, I can't lie, my heart will tell me true
You know me, you know me better than I think I want you toNow, I go it alone
A solitary man
This is something I must do for myself
You got to take me as I amSaying it once, I'll say it again
No chain of love on me
Saying it once, I'll say it again
No chain of love on meTake a walk down Lonely Street once more
Take a walk down Lonely Street once more
Take a walk down Lonely Street once moreSaying it once, I'll say it again
No chain of love on me
Saying it once, I'll say it again
No chain of love on me
Saying it once, I'll say it again
No chain of love on me
Saying it once, I'll say it again
No chain of love on meLet's take a walk
Take a walk down Lonely Street once more
Take a walk down Lonely Street once more
Take a walk down Lonely Street once more
Take a walk down Lonely Street once more
Take a walk down Lonely Street once more
Take a walk down Lonely Street once more
