Why Wait

Kristy Lee Cook

We could throw these sparks around all day
'Til this fire gets hotter
We can stand right here on the river bank
Dip our toes in the waterWe can sit on this fence and test the wind
Walk on the edge of jumping in
If we hesitate a moment too long
Our chance could be goneWhy wait when we could fall right now?
It's love we've been dancing around
The kind of love people dream aboutHey, hey, why not cross over the line?
I'm yours, don't you wanna be mine?
Something this good doesn't come along everyday
Why wait?We could keep these words on the tip of our tongue
Or come right out and say 'em
We can play these games, play hard to get
Baby time's a wastin'I'd rather be in a long, slow kiss
Than having to hold my breath like this
It's a feeling I can't ignore
Can't hold it back anymoreWhy wait when we could fall right now?
It's love we've been dancing around
The kind of love people dream aboutHey, hey, why not cross over the line?
I'm yours, don't you want to be mine?
Something this good doesn't come along everyday
Why wait?For the magic moment when the stars align
Baby, there's never gonna be a more perfect time
Why wait?Why wait when we could fall right now?
It's love we've been dancing around
The kind of love people dream aboutHey, hey, why not cross over the line?
I'm yours don't you want to be mine
Something this good doesn't come along everyday
Something this good doesn't come along everyday
Why wait, why wait?
