Wanderlust

Fozzy

I've been around the world a thousand times

Seen the same places and faces and traces

I never forget, regret, reject, expect

Quenching my thirst

Complacence is curse

I climb from mountain to mountain

Bird on a wing

Like the wind

The song that I sing

Never satisfied to stand in line

Wasting my mind

It's my time to shine

I just can't get away from yesterday

But I keep on living the wanderer's way

And over and over I start anew
But I can't escape the thoughts of you
I tried to play your game a thousand times
And I let it infect and detect and affect
My clarity, my charity, my destiny
Sold out who I was
And what I could be
I drift from moment to moment
Looking for serenity
A place to stand
A home for me
In a world that's fueling insanity
Never satisfied to stand in line
Wasting my mind
It's my time to shine
