Believe

Mandalay

Similar not the same
You will allow a low light
Will sunlight heal the core of your body
And the sound I hold so dearWho wouldn't sing for love?
And who wouldn't do all of that?
Looks like I've been the sole nobody
And now I couldn't follow thisI believe, I believe nowSee you a lot near the site
And to you I throw a low light
And the sight of you is so in my body
And the sight I hold so dearWho wouldn't sing for me now
And who wouldn't have done all of that Looks like I've been a friend to nobody
And now I couldn't lead you homeI believe, I believe now
I believe, I believe nowThe sunlight heal the core of your body
And the sound I hold so dearLooks like I've been a friend to nobody
And now I couldn't lead you home(I believe, I believe)
The sunlight heal the core of your body
(I believe)
And the sound I hold so dear
(I believe)I believe, I believe now
I believe, I believe now
