

Another Last Chance

Sammie

Baby, I'm tryna step to you and be a man about it
And express myself, my pride just won't allow it
Couldn't help before, the life of me, girl I wasn't triffin'
I can't believe the things I did to you I'm not here to say I'm sorry over and over
And I'm not gone spittin' no game trying to get over
Girl, I'm at your mercy, do what you will with me
Before you walk away just listen Wish I could press rewind and take away the pain
If things were perfect then you wouldn't appreciate
Girl, I'm about to hurt for you, throw myself off this bridge for you
I'm trippin' because I'm 'bout to lose my boo, girl, I plead insanity Baby, please forgive me
For everything that I did, I was actin' just like a kid
Baby, please forgive me
I promise to tell the truth, girl, I'm gonna do right by you
Baby, please forgive me
For not answerin' the call when I was out tryna ball
Baby, please forgive me
All I'm askin' for, askin' for is another last chance I know you said, the last time we tried was the final time
And if you don't believe me, listen to my eyes
How can I make you understand? Baby, I'm a changed man
Kill me if you tell me that you're through Been sufferin' and I can't take it no longer
I can't be the dude who's watchin' you at the altar
With another man to be, when I know it should be me
Hearin' you say, I Wish I could press rewind and take away the pain
If things were perfect then you wouldn't appreciate
Girl, I'm about to hurt for you, throw myself off this bridge for you
Trippin' because I'm 'bout to lose my boo, girl, forgive me Baby, please forgive me
For everything that I did, I was actin' just like a kid
Baby, please forgive me
I promise to tell the truth, girl, I'm gonna do right by you
Baby, please forgive me
For not answerin' the call when I was out tryna ball
Baby, please forgive me
All I'm askin' for, askin' for is another last chance Girl, I'm sorry for all the things I sent your way, baby
Girl, I'm sorry for sleepless nights, for teary eyes I made
Girl, I'm sorry for not answerin', for not catchin' you and you fallin'
But I promise from this day on I'ma be the man you need
Baby please Baby, please forgive me
For everything that I did, I was actin' just like a kid
Baby, please forgive me

I promise to tell the truth, girl, I'm gonna do right by you
Baby, please forgive me
For not answerin' the call when I was out tryna ball
Baby, please forgive me
All I'm askin' for, askin' for is another last chanceBaby, please forgive me
For everything that I did, I was actin' just like a kid
Baby, please forgive me
I promise to tell the truth, girl, I'm gonna do right by you
Baby, please forgive me
For not answerin' the call when I was out tryna ball
Baby, please forgive me
All I'm askin' for, askin' for
