

OK Cathedral

Violent Soho

Tell everyone.
Tell everyone you'd like to tell
That i'm not gonna make itWaiting and waiting for god
To carry me to shore
No i'm not gonna take itAnd i said to my mother
Gonna change you
Gonna save you
But I'll be here anywayEveryone knows it's just like that
The government knows it's just like that
The writing is written on your back
I'll take an island in your eyes
Watch the sun get high
And pretend until it's all gone
I don't ever wanna go
This cathedral is my homeWake up inside
Wake up inside what you don't know
Cause we're not gonna make it
For years we've been acting so cold
Useless chat and ice
No we're not gonna take itAnd i said to my mother
Gonna change you
Gonna save you
But I'll be hereEveryone knows it's just like that
The government knows it's just like that
The writing is written on our back
I'll take an island in your eyes
Watch the sun get high
And pretend until it's all gone
I don't ever wanna go
This cathedral is my home
This cathedral is my home
