a big red stache you love your cars you love your girls you love the bars Dirk and Reid hooked them on coke along with Scotty the butt of jokes I saw you the other night you busted glass screamed fucking rights and you caused bodily harm it's lucky you weren't armedengineered your fatal scam a lot of blow half kilogram even though you're quickly capped you reasoned Dirk so he'd go back
and you caused bodily harm it's lucky you weren't armedevery time you see this guy it's enough to make you wanna cry and you look deep inside his face just before he gives you a taste and you'll wonder if emotionally he's torn apart deep inside he'll know
