

Time For Livin'

Beastie Boys

Yeah, that's right
It's time to set the record straightAin't nobody got to spell it for me
I said, ain't nobody got to yell that can see
I said, ain't nobody got to pay that can hear
But if I have to, I'll yell in your earTime for livin', time for givin'
Time for livin', time for givin'
Time for livin', time for givin'
Time for livin', time for givin'Check this out
Ain't nobody got to spell it for me
I said, ain't nobody got to yell that can see
I said, ain't nobody got to pay that can hear
But if I have to I'll yell in your earSoul fire
Soul fire
And we ain't got no water
We don't got no waterTime for livin', time for givin'
No time for makin' up a monster to sell
Time for livin', time for givin'
No time for makin' up a monster to sell
