

If You Had Called Yesterday

Julie Roberts

I'll admit it got to me hearing your voice on that machine
It took all I had to just let you talk and not pick up where we left off
Every night since your goodbye I hit my knees and closed my eyes
And I pray that you'd come back
Too many tears washed out that bridge you wanna cross
But baby, it's too late for that
Last night would've been a different story
But the morning sun must've done something for me
'Cause I bet I'd gone the other way, if you'd called yesterday
If you'd called yesterday
This victory runs bitter sweet through the heart and soul of me
But I sip my coffee and watch the sun rise makin' its way to a bluer sky
Every night since your goodbye I hit my
knees and closed my eyes
And I pray that you'd come back
Too many tears washed out that bridge you wanna cross
But baby, it's too late for that
Last night would've been a different story
But the morning sun must've done something for me
'Cause I bet I'd gone the other way, if you'd called yesterday
Last night would've been a different story
But the morning sun must've done something for me
'Cause I bet I'd gone the other way, if you'd called yesterday
If you'd called yesterday, if you'd called yesterday
