

Sing Me Back Home (Duet With Keith Richards)

Marianne Faithfull

The warden who led a prisoner down the hallway to his doom
I stood up to say, goodbye like all the rest
And I heard him tell the warden just before he reached my cell
Let my guitar playing friend do my request
Let him sing me back home with a song I used to hear
Make my old memories come alive
Oh please, take me away and turn back the years
Sing me back home before I die
I remember Sunday morning, a choir from off the streets
They came in to sing a few old gospel songs
And I heard him tell the singers, there's a song my mama sang
Won't you sing it once before I move along?
Oh, won't you sing me back home? There's a song I used to hear
Make my old memories come alive
Please, take me away and turn back the years
Sing me back home before I die
