

Say Something Real

Kem

We're in a state of emergency
A mess and confusion
The danger is great It's plain to see
That's the time's call for desperate solutions
Feel the love Feel the pain baby
It's just an illusion
We've been wrong
We've been right
We've been up day and night
Like soldiers in revolution
We're like soldiers in revolution
There's a war goin' on in here, girl
Got to find us a better solution
Just let it all here round
And say something real
Say something real
Hey girl say something real
Won't you say something real girl?
Say something real
Baby say something real
Save the world and rescue me
With love and affection
You better send for the cavalry
'cause I'm fed up with all your rejection
Girl your love is a sacred thing
And I like it But I'm selfish by nature
That's why I get to you
While you get to me
We show out girl
Where the town and the soldiers
And the revolution
There's a war goin' on in here, girl
Got to find us a better solution
Just let it all hang out
And say something real
Say something real
Hey girl say something real
Say something real
Hey say something real

You know they say it's a thin line
Between love and hate, baby, baby
And maybe that's why sometimes we're cruel
And sometimes we ain't
And we both Heaven Earth to demand satisfaction
You know I love you It's a cosmic reaction
And you know that we say what we want
Girl we're soldiers in a revolution
There's a war goin' on in here, girl
Baby, baby, baby
Say something real
We're like soldiers in a revolution
Say something real
Say something real
Say something real
Say what you want girl
You know that I need you
Say something real girl
Baby, baby, yeah
