

Nothing Can Be Changed

William Fitzsimmons

Cover my heart
I am walking down the path she loved
Two cedars grown
Only seedlings when her face was young
Forgive my doubt
I was only told I'm better off
Let not her stay
In that motel room she passed alone
And nothing can be changed anymore
And nothing can be changed anymore
Set forth her plate
She is welcomed at the table now
Look not for blood
To the same earth we will all return
