Big Sky

Glenn Hughes

You're packing your suitcase
You're closing the door
Move on to a new place
Won't see you no moreAnd the tears fall
From heaven again
I will miss you my old friendHeaded for big sky
Headed for big sky
Headed for big skySwim with the dolphins
Down in the bay
Out in the sunlight
It's a beautiful dayAnd we look through
Kaleidoscope eyes
In the sunriseHeaded for big sky
Headed for big sky
Headed for big skyLater that morning
I stood by your bed
I'll meet you in Venice
That's what you saidAnd it looks like
Blue skies ahead
So goodbye, my friendHeaded for big sky
Headed for big sky
Headed for big skyHeaded for big sky
Headed for big sky
