

Happy Children.

P. Lion

Always the war in 1983 - this is the world of today. In our mind there is only the money and there is nothing for you. Then hours work no flowers in the mind the life runs without happiness. Every day dreams to go to a better life but they remain only dreams. You are the children your life will be very hard. You are the children you're singing every day. To have a friend to explain your little problem. Can you say now to have it? Sometimes you hope it's only an illusion. Don't hope it's better so. But children power will win. I am sure will see sweet lovers for us. Your fantasy will find new nice colours. But now it's time to go. You are the children. Your life will be very hard. . . . You are the children. Your life will be very hard. . . . You are the children. Your life will be very hard. . . .
