Prove You Wrong

He Is We

You?re the boy with a real nice smile but a broken heart inside
Gave it to a girl, give it a girl; I think she lost her mind
Are you giving up and done?
Are you through with all this?
Are you tired of the pain-- torn to pieces
Can you let me try?
Tell me it?s alright, just for one night
Show you how it feels like, what it feels like
To be hugged, to be kissed
Yes, I can be that part of you
I?ll try my best
I?m the girl, I can make you smile
And I promise to be true
Give it all, give until there?s nothing left to lose
Don?t say you?re giving up and done,
That you?re through with all this,
yeah you?re tired of the pain?torn to pieces
Can you let me try?
Tell me it?s alright, just for one night
Show you how it feels like, what it feels like
To be hugged, to be kissed
Be thought of and to be missed
I can be that part of you, let me be that part of you
I see that you?re breaking, your heart is breaking
Here?s my hand if you?ll take it

We can make it out, of this mess
No more stress
I can be that part of you
I?ll try my best
Give me your heart, I
Don?t want a piece or part, I want it all
I want you to fall,
Just a little bit
Take that leap of faith, if you want to Don?t let that broken heart haunt you
Can you let me try?
Tell me it?s alright, just for one night
Show you how it feels like, what it feels like

To be hugged, to be kissed
Be thought of and to be missed
I can be that part of you, let me be that part of you
I see that you?re breaking, your heart is breaking
Here?s my hand if you?ll take it
We can make it out, of this mess
No more stress
I can be that part of you
I?ll try my best
Try my best
I can be that part of you,
I?ll try my best.
