

Zombie Song

Skavoovie & The Epitones

our love story could be kinda gory far from boring we'd meet at a post- apocalypse. ya I'd be slowly walking in a group stalking you, you'd be the only man alive that I could not resist.

(chorus)

than all of your friend would try to kill us but only because they'd be jealous that our love is deeper than Edward and Bella's, oh if I were a zombie, I'd never eat your brains I'd just want your heart, ya I'd want your heart, just want your heart, yeah oh if I were a zombie, I'd never eat your brain I'd just want your heart, I'd want your heart just want your heart cuz I want ya you'd be hiding in a second floor apartment knockin all the stairs down to save your life, from the undead double-barrel shotgun, takin out the slow ones than you'd see the passion burning in my eye and I'd keep my head

(chorus)

than all of your friends would try to kill us but only because they'd be jealous that out love is deeper than Edward and Bella's, oh if I were zombie I'd never eat your brains I'd just want your heart ya I'd just want your heart, just want your heart yeah oh
if I were a zombie I'd never eat your brains I'd just want your heart ya I'd just want your heart, just want your heart cuz I want ya.

and I'd try, not to bite and infected you because I respect you too much and thats why I'd wait until we got married oh and our happiest day would be spent picking off all your friends then they would see a love this deep won't stay buried

if I were a zombie I'd never eat your brains

I'd just want your heart ya i'd just want your heart, just want your heart, ya oh
if I were a zombie I'd never eat your brain I'd just want your heart ya I'd just want your heart just want your heart cuz I want ya.
