Trial By Fire

xDISCIPLEx A.D.

Through pride's eyes
I see your downfall coming quick
With my anger's fire the knife in my backTill remains the thorn in my side
Your house burns down commandments tie
My hands back only when my spirit obeysI'm free demon pride inventing rights
To brink me down to breaking you down
Trial by fire, burns my patience to the ground
Trial by fire, your house is burning down
