

Look Who's Lonely Now

Bill LaBounty

Heard you caught a falling star
Down on Sunset Boulevard
What a souvenir It only sparkled for a night
When you held it in the light
The glitter disappeared Oh, look who's lonely now
Welcome to the other side
Look who's lonely now
You know my arms are open wide There's a lot of fun uptown
That sophisticated crowd took you for a ride
When they finally let you down
There was no one else around who puts in a plan
Look who's lonely now
Welcome to the other side
Look who's lonely now
You know my arms are open wide When something isn't right
Then something must be wrong
There's still hope in something missing in my life
And it's good to know
I am not the only one Look, look who's lonely now
Welcome to the other side
Look who's lonely, lonely now
You know my arms are open wide Look, look who's lonely now
Welcome to the other side
Look who's lonely now
You know my arms are open wide
When something isn't right
Then something must be wrong
There's still hope in something missing in my life
And it's good to know
I am not the only one...
