Move You

The Drongos

When the knight you left wakes up,
And recalls your folly,
You won't have time to right the wrongs,
And you'll be sorry...[Chorus]
I tried so hard to move you,
To make you feel as I do.
The ground below's not sound now,
Babe, it's givin' way!And when your knight in armour falls,
Oh will you follow?
But when you opened up his head,
The suit was hollow...[Chorus]'Fight', the good King said,
'Ride the horse', he said,
Notorious, notorious! x2When I am King you'll have your throne.
And I will burn it.[Bridge][Chorus]
