

I Have a Song

Awaken Generation

I have a song to sing
A song to bring to my Saviour
Though it may sound small
Though it may sound weak
But You look deeper within I have a song to sing
A song to lay at Your feet
A song of thanks
A song of praise
I let it rise from within Oh let it sound like
A surrendered heart
Oh let it sound like
I'm laying down my pride
Let it sound like
I've traded all my crown for you
Let it sound like
A yielded life
Let it sound like
A sacrifice
Let it sound like
I'm pouring all my love on you I'll give you all my praises
No matter what it costs
I won't withhold my worship
Cause you are worthy God I'll give you all my praises
No matter what it costs
I won't withhold my worship
Cause you are worthy God Ohh you are worthy God
Let it sound like
A church alive
Let it sound like
A faith on Fire
Let it sound like
A song of heaven on earth
