The Prey

Ashes Divide

They pretend to be the One to be afraid of Caressing our souls away from us, and
Hold the Word to keep us all in line
If we just fold our hands and smileSo many wasted
Promises rhapsodized never take us higherDont be not afraid of their Excommunication youll survive
Please have no shame cause you
Will ascend, n climb and you will riseSo many wasted
Promises rhapsodized
So many wasted
Sundays trying to avoid the fire
So many wasted
Promises to take you higherThey pretend to be the One we should be afraid of Caressing our souls awaySo many wasted
Promises rhapsodized
So many wasted
Sundays trying to avoid the fire
Ive seen the twisted ways
They pushed the guilt inside and made you believe you have to Try to Suffer, live and die their wayBut it doesnt have to be this way
You dont have to be
Shaken and confused and hanging onto anything you can find
