

Fortune Teller

Calexico

I was just standing, turning around
That's when they caught me headin down
Keep on going dont look away
That's what they tell me, that's what they say OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOh Yeah, that's what they tell me, that's what they say You're a pretty thought I support Yeah, I'm just tryin to hold up as I go
And one day I swear I'll spread my wings
I'm on my way to finer things OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOh I'm on my way to finer things It wasn't just me playin those games
Still it's my own fault just the same
I opened up, I let you in Now these crystal feelings are wearing thin OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOh I opened up, I let you in I'm walkin with the
fortune teller
I can see my own way home
But I don't like this dark road anymore
And I don't want to be alone for long OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOh Don't want to be alone for long
I don't want to be on this dark road alone
