Barry

Gus Gus

Do you remember when we had all
When we floated in waves of water
We were something, something dark and slick
I like your style, oh man, we move togetherAh ha, we were dancing through doorways and motels
Big hot summer day, it was July
Streets of angels, streets of freedom
But you probably may know why, whyDo you remember the singing, the dancing
The curly waves, the lovely jokes you said
Neither waiting at the sound of desire
Last tuck, you always say, makes you a manOh Barry, you should have danced with me
All night long, yeah, all night long
'Cause you've got so much to giveThere're times when I had to know, had to know, baby
You had so much to give, to give oh baby, it's you
'Cause you have danced with me, danced with me
Yeah, 'cause you've got so much to give, babyHad to know, had to know, had to know
[Incomprehensible]
'Cause I had to know, had to know
Had to know, had to know
