On My Way

Ronan Keating

Im on my way, yeahThe rain wont catch you
And the wind wont blow
Where youre blowing no one knows
And its alright nowClouds are forming in a neon sky
You wonder how
You wonder why
I, Im on my wayIf we knew the end
Would we start at all
See the pride before the fall
And its over nowYou cant break up what you cant break down
Life can sometimes spin you round
And Im on my way
Im on my way, yeahCause my priority is no more you and me
The world will always turn beneath our feet, yeah
My philosophy, has overtaken me
Theres nothin left to say, theres nothin left to sayTheres a hole in your heart when the rain gets in
So you pull up your collar and you start again
And Im on my way
Im on my way, yeahMy philosophy, yeah
(My philosophy)
Has overtaken me
(Has overtaken me)
Theres nothin left to say
Theres nothin left to sayYou watch her leaving
On the evening train
You know she wont be back again
And its alright nowThere is no right, there is no wrong
You live your life, keep movin on
And Im on my way
Im on my way, yeahIm on my way
(Oh, Im on my way)
Im on my way, Im on my way, yeah, Im on my way, yeah
Im on my way, yeah, Im on my way
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Im on my way yeah, Im on my way, yeahCause my priority, yeah has overtaken me
Cause my philosophy, is no more you and me
Im on my way, yeah, yeah
