Cut Here

The Cure

So we meet again! And I offer my hand All dry and English slow And you look at me and I understand Yeah it's a look I used to knowThree long years and your favorite man Is that any way to say hello?

And you hold me like you'll never let me go Like you'll never let meOh, c'mon and have a drink with me

Sit down and talk a while

Oh, I wish I could and I will!

But now I just don't have the timeAnd over my shoulder as I walk away I see you give that look goodbye

I still see that look in your eyeSo dizzy Mr. Busy, too much rush to talk to Billy

All the silly frilly things have to first get done

In a minute, sometime soon, maybe next time, make it June

Until later doesn't always come

Until later doesn't always comeIt's so hard to think it ends sometime

And this could be the last

I should really hear you sing again

And I should really watch you dance

Because it's hard to think I'll never get another chance

To hold you, to hold youBut chilly Mr. Dilly, too much rush to talk to Billy

All the tizzy fizzy idiot things must get done

In a second, just hang on, all in good time

Won't be long until laterI should've stopped to think, I should've made the time

I could've had that drink, I could've talked a while

I would've done it right, I would've moved us on

But I didn't, now it's all too late

It's over over and you're goneI miss you, I miss you, I miss you I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so muchBut how many times can I walk away and wish, if only

How many times can I talk this way and wish, if only

Keep on making the same mistake Keep on aching the same heartbreak I wish if only but if only is a wish too late
