Moulding (E Version)

Ijahman Levi

The earth need some moulding
I'm gonna dig and dig some holes in
And bring forth some fruits, oh Lord
Trees bearing fruits
The earth need some moulding
Arise my sheep if you're sleeping
And bring forth your fruits, oh Lord
Trees bearing fruits
Trees bearing fruitsSaid I know of a place rich and silent
With these lots of word for each and everyone
To be done, it's no fun
Bring forth your potions sistrens and bredrens
I believe that heaven's now come
Let's not tore he, 'cause her hurt is ready
Something has got to be doneI said the earth need some moulding
I'm gonna dig and dig some holes in
And bring forth some fruits, oh Lord
Trees bearing fruits
The earth need some moulding
Let's bring forth some fruits, oh Lord
Trees bearing fruitsSaid I'm planting some seeds with the singers
Still a chance speak louder than words
To all players of instruments
That only for desire the talent is given
Responsability we must carry
Help those who cannot help themselves
To build in solid foundationI said the earth need some moulding
I'm gonna dig and dig some holes in
And bring forth some fruits, oh Lord
Trees bearing fruits
I said the earth need some moulding
I'm sending out the warning
Just laugh the rainbow
The cover not that show...Oh moulding...
Oh moulding...
Oh moulding...
Seed sowing...
