Speed Of The Sound Of Loneliness

Nanci Griffith

You come home late and you come home early
You come home big, when you're feelin' small
You come home straight and you come home curly
Sometimes you don't come home at allSo what in the world's come over you?
And what in Heaven's name have you done?
You've broken the speed of the sound of loneliness
You're out there runnin', just to be on the runWell, I've got a heart that burns with a fever
And I've got a worried and a jealous mind
How can a love, that will last forever
Get left so far behind?So what in the world's come over you?
What in Heaven's name have you done?
You've broken the speed of the sound of loneliness
You're out there runnin', just to be on the runIt's a mighty mean and a dreadful sorrow
Crossed the evil line today
How can you asked about tomorrow?
We ain't got one word to saySo what in the world's come over you?
What in Heaven's name have you done?
You've broken the speed of the sound of loneliness
You're out there runnin', just to be on the runSo what in the world's come over you?
And what in Heaven's name have you done?
You've broken the speed of the sound of loneliness
You're out there runnin', just to be on the runYou're out there runnin', just to be on the run
You're out there runnin', just to be on the run
