

If Money Didn't Matter

Granger Smith

If money didn't matter, I'd buy a brand new Chevrolet
And I'd burn up a full tank on a sunset back road.
If money didn't matter, I'd buy a house out on a lake
With a boat dock on the bank, oh but deep down I know

That's not like going home at night,
Pulling in a dirt road driveway
Falling in the arms of the girl I love.
I know who I am, I'm a rich man
Every single day
Because if money didn't matter
It wouldn't matter anyway.

If money didn't matter, I'd quit working it so hard
I'd smoke a bunch of sweet cigars in a chair out on the beach.
If money didn't matter, I'd buy a seat on a big jet
See the places I haven't yet, but if you weren't with me

That's not like going home at night,
Pulling in a dirt road driveway
Falling in the arms of the girl I love.
I know who I am, I'm a rich man
Every single day
Because if money didn't matter
It wouldn't matter, it wouldn't matter anyway.

We could still take a trip to the lake
Count the stars off my old tailgate
Oh, a billion bucks can't buy that kind of stuff.

Cause you can't buy going home at night,
Pulling in a dirt road driveway
Falling in the arms of the girl you love.
I know who I am, I'm a rich man
Every single day
Because if money didn't matter
It wouldn't matter anyway.
No, if money didn't matter
It wouldn't matter anyway.

It wouldn't matter anyway.
Uh, if money didn't matter,
It wouldn't matter anyway.
