Long Gone

Fair Warning

There ain't my land in this city lights..
It's bringin' back your face sometims....
Memories of the thousand nights long gone.....
And there's a feelin' I go by...
I still can see your shinin' eyes..
I can feel my heart's still holdin' on..(We didn't need warnin'..
When we found that love was gone..
We never found the reason..
But that time we buy..
And time's never wrong...
babe.....){ Wherever we go..whatever we find..
We never made it till the mornin'..
Whatever we do...we cannot deny.....
Believin' in love would've ever strong... }
Long gone.....The world is on the turn and tryin'..
Crossin' with the mornin' light...
To wash away the souls' abscence in the sand...
And as I see them risin' high..
I turn away to close my eyes...
I guess one day my heart will understand...REPEAT (...) & {...}
