

Sidewalk

No Fun At All

What are you supposed to do
Living, sitting, on your own
Where are you to go now
When everybody's fighting
Leaving you, yeah
You don't do anything
But talking to the walls
Open up your ears and listen
To the things I wanna say, I'm saying
You are losing your conception
You are falling out of line
