Nevers!

The Fiery Furnaces

NeversThere's a town i know called nevers
No nevers
Never wasn't was what it weren'tWhen it wasn't once. Knew nevers
Knew nevers
Nothing never i'll ever learntThere's a village i visit, that's vaguely
Sorta vaguely
Vaguely yes i seem to recallThough it's unclear clearly- vaguely
Very vaguely
Can't say it's been there once and for allI put back on my overshoes
And got in my renault
The trips reset so i'm unsure
How far it is to go
But then it hits me (slap)
I've left it off my mapThere's a city i saw signed something
Must be something
Something never quite so definedSo much so how somewhere something
(though some sing)
So to speak's the uncertain kindIn an index looked up where-it-was Exactly where it was
Just in fact to make sure i can'tSet a course straight through to where it ain't
And where it ain't
Ain't gotten to except at a slantI put on my new black boots
And pack up my citroen
And out of town it huffs and puffs
I set off there alone
And then it hits me (slap)
I've left it off my mapThere's a place i passed called once upon a time
Tiny once upon a time
Never wasn't weren't what it wasSet the clock back twice or once upon a time
In once upon a time
Never knew when it wasn't there because
