I Stand I Fall

Greg Ferguson

I stand, I fall, You take my hand.
You give me grace to stand again
You teach, you test me,
We try again, until I understand

I try and I fail miserably
You pick me up so patiently
You walk me back where we began,
And we begin again.

The lessons are remedial,
Your patience unbelievable
Stumbling into holiness
Is the only way I learn I guess

I stand, I fall, You take my hand
You give me grace to stand again
You teach, you test me,
We try again, until I understand
Until I understand

I heard this probably close to 20 years ago, I am pretty sure this is very close if not the exact lyrics but I cannot find them online anywhere so there is nothing to confirm it.
