

Empty

Leilani Wolfgramm

Empty
by Leilani Wolfgramm

Fell in love with a man
Who had no plans
And it kept him
From keepin' promises
Can feel the lies he said through my hand
Holding on to him
Was like tryna catch the wind
And he turned our world
Into a losers game
And like a fool I played
Fuck what them wise men said

I'd rushed all the way
To give my heart away
All of it
You didn't won yet
But you took it anyways
You took it anyways
You took it anyways
And left me empty
I went ahead and let you get the very best of me
And you left me empty

As a drum
Thee drum
Thee drum
Thee drum drum drum
Ha ooo the drum thee drum
And you run run run
You run run run
And you turned our love into a losers game
And like a fool I played
Fuck what them wise men said

Said I'd rushed all the way
To give my heart away
Way

All of it
You didn't won yet
Well you took it anyways
You took it anyways
You took it anyways
And left me empty
You took it anyways
Took it anyways
You took it anyways
And left me empty

As a drum
Thee drum
Thee drum
Thee drum drum drum
Hey you run run
Hey you run run
You run run run
You run run
Tell me who you running from
Tell me when the fun is gone
Look around around
See what you've done done

You've turned our world into a losers game
And like a fool I played
Fuck what them wise men said said
You took it anyways
Took it anyways
You took it anyways
And you left me
Empty
You took it anyways
Took it anyways
You took it anyways
