Bermuda Locket

â€ â€ â€

I got to tell you something
I wanna view your dreams
I wanna pull out your crazy and pour it over me.
I might take you somewhere far across the seas
I need your faith, I need your everything.As you enter into my curse
Our dreams reverse and the demons burst...So I wait, anticipate to meet you tonight,
Come this way and I will bring your dreams to life.I wanna move you somewhere close to ecstasy
I might tell you things some which you won't believe
I wanna view the signals that control your brain
I need a taste I need your everything.As you enter into my curse
Our dreams reverse and the demons burst...
So I wait, anticipate to meet you tonight
Just come this way and I will bring your dreams to life.From the first time I saw you till now
I have counted the years that have gone by We'll release those demons tonight, tonight.So I wait, anticipate to meet you tonight
Just come this way and I will bring your dreams to life.
So I save this occasion to meet you tonight
Just come this way and I will bring your dreams to life.
