The Titanic

Ruthie Foster

God moves on the water
April the 14th day
God moves on the water
Everybody had to run and prayThe Titanic left Southampton
With all their sport and game
But when they struck that iceberg
I know their mind was changedLet me tell you
God moves on the water
April the 14th day
God moves on the water
Everybody had to run and pray
The mothers told their daughters
On a pleasure trip they may go
But when they struck that iceberg
They haven't been seen no moreLet me tell you
God moves on the water
April the 14th day
God moves on the water
Everybody had to run and prayThe story of that shipwreck
Is almost too sad to tell
One thousand and six hundred
Well, they went down forever to twelveDid you know that
God moves on the water
April the 14th day
God moves on the water
Everybody had to run and pray
Well, the 14th of day of April
It was nineteen hundred and twelve
The ship had wrecked by an iceberg
Ah, it went down forever to twelveI know God moves on the water
April the 14th day
God moves on the water
Everybody had to run and pray
