Battle Angel

Sacred Steel

From the pits of hell
a legion of hatred
to break the holy spell all that is sacred
in the midst of confusion heat of the battle
an angel in armour
the power of metal
warrior of steel
to fight the deceiver
you're in for the kill a non-believer
wings stained with blood sword deadly metal
come fight if you dare
the angel in battleBattle angel slay with wrath divine
battle angel
feel his rage and dieAscending with power and might wielding his sword of revenge see the fire of truth in his eyes destined to fight battle angelTaking to the sky guardian in glory
in grace so divine
and pure victory
celestial fighter
defender leader
the armies of heaven
crushed the deceiver
saviour from the sky
stand and deliver
fight and never die
reign on forever
you who brought us steel blessed us with metal forever blessed be
the angel of battle
