Beast Inside

Inspiral Carpets

Lift the scab off the sore
Rub another lump of salt in the wound
Word is out that you're
Gonna get reasonable soonGuess a man is no man
If he doesn't have the beast inside
Guess a man is no man
If he doesn't have the beast insideTake the head off my neck
Drop the splinters of glass down the hole
'Cause you're doing your best
To destroy every inch of my soulGuess a man is no man
If he doesn't have the beast inside
Guess a man is no man
If he doesn't have the beast insideTake the gun off the wall
Put the lead in my soul
Lift the bones from my skin
Lay them out on the floorTake the gun off the wall
Put the lead in my soul
Lift the bones from my skin
Lay them out on the floorDon't count your chicken
Before he crawls out of his shell
'Cause the firing squad waits
And you know this so perfectly wellGuess a man is no man
If he doesn't have the beast inside
Guess a man is no man
If he doesn't have the beast insideTake the gun off the wall
Put the lead in my soul
Lift the bones from my skin
Lay them out on the floorTake the gun off the wall
Put the lead in my soul
Lift the bones from my skin
Lay them out on the floorAll of our hopes and our wishes
Our future remains
Could be destroyed by these
Pointless emotional gamesGuess a man is no man
If he doesn't have the beast inside
Guess a man is no man
If he doesn't have the beast insideTake the gun off the wall
Put the lead in my soul
Lift the bones from my skin

Lay them out on the floorTake the gun off the wall
Put the lead in my soul
Lift the bones from my skin
Lay them out on the floorTake the gun off the wall
Put the lead in my soul
Lift the bones from my skin
Lay them out on the floorTake the gun off the wall
Put the lead in my soul
Lift the bones from my skin
Lay them out on the floorLay them out on the floor
Lay them out on the floor
Lay them out on the floor
Lay them out on the floor
