Misled

Evergrey

Strapped in a bed with no clothes
The room has no windows
I try to remember last night
There's nothingIt is cold and my body starts to shiver
I try to fight it but trying makes me nauseous
I'm having a hard time deciding
This is where they take me
(Where they take me)I'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe
How come you lost your faith in me?
I spoke with nothing but honestyI don't recognize the silence
I can feel it the reality of it scares me
Sounds of steps outside
Keys in the door-lockWhite robes they're human
I've been misledI'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe
How come you lost your faith in me?
I spoke with nothing but honestyI'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believeI'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe
How come you lost your faith in me?
I spoke with nothing but honestyI'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe
How come you lost your faith in me?
Why did you lose your faith?
