Love What You Have

The Janoskians

All the feels you feel hide away from me but every time you let me see that smile on your face, it's clear to me

You laugh just to laugh
runaway from everything
you hate what you have
so you hide everything
I can see that,
bet you don't know
when you look down
it really shows
I like what you have
'cause you have everything
'cause you have everything

It's not so hard to see who you wanna be and I don't care,
'cause i know that this feeling's in the air and no one can compare

so you hide everything
I can see that, bet you don't know
when you look down it really shows
I like what you have
'cause you have everything

I don't really can forget so tell me now do you feel the same?
you don't have to runaway
'cause I'm around girl I made this day

so you hide everything
I can see that, bet you don't know
'cause you have everything
'cause you have everything
