

Most High

DJ Khaled

We all got to go through storms
We all got to go through the mud
Remember the sunshine on the other side
First I got to give thanks to the most high
I've been through it all good and bad seen both side
Now we in the sky seem so high
And the view is so amazing that ain't no lie
But you know what they say more money more problems
I guess they mad at us just because we came from the bottom
I feel the rain the storm's coming in
But after the rain we'll be shining again (don't give up)
Don't worry it won't rain forever
I've been through the craziest weather
The world is cold there ain't no one to call on
I thought you would be there for me I was all wrong
You know what they say more money more problems
I guess they mad at us just because we came from the bottom
I feel the rain the storm's coming in
But after the rain we'll be shining again
Thak you for all of my blessings
All praise to the most high
The most high
