

Eight

Onesidezero

Secrets out unfold
Whispered words be warned
Falling into one
It's you I still believe Felt, so alive
Wish I could hold
It's already full
So phase me out of your life
It's all, it's all, it's already full Treat the son our own
Haven't seen him grow
Held the hand we lost
It's you I can't recall Felt, so alive
Wish I could hold
It's already full
So phase me out of your life
It's all, it's all, it's already full Secrets out unfold
Whispered words be warned
Falling into one
It's you I still believe Alright
Feeling alright, alright And I still believe
All that we couldn't see
And it seems so wrong
But I wish I could
Never will It's already full
It's already full
It's all, it's all, it's already
Full, full It's already full [incomprehensible]
It's already full, full
