

One Heartache at a Time

Brooks & Dunn

Just sittin' here, mindin' my own broken heart
Still hurtin' like the night, she went away
Here you come a double shot of trouble in your eyes
Now Heaven knows there'll be Hell to pay I can't take but just one heartache at a time
I've gotta wait 'til I've had a chance
To drink her off my mind
Well I'll save some tears and meet you here
Somewhere down the line
I can't take but just one heartache at a time Yeah, I'd be lyin', lyin' in your lovin' arms
And tempted as I am, I can't pretend
Just my luck
You picked tonight to set your sights on me
Darlin', can't you see the shape I'm in I can't take but just one heartache at a time
I've gotta wait 'til I've had a chance
To drink her off my mind
Well I'll save some tears and meet you here
Somewhere down the line
I can't take but just one heartache
I can't take but just one heartache at a time
