Tear It All Down

Ed Prosek

[intro]
I won't come
this way again.
You have my word I won't go turn you in.
I'm just looking,
for a place to rest.
The tired bones that hold my hollow chest
But he ain't seen
the last of us.
Oh he won't stop,
until I'm face down in the dust.

[chorus]
Oh, tear it all down darling we're running again,
oh, till they put us down and we raise our hands.
Tear it, tear it all down darling we're starting again,
oh, and we'll keep on fighting till the bitter end,
oh, keep on fighting till the bitter end

[bridge]
I won't lie,
I'm scared to death.
I thank my lucky stars for everything.
And if we find,
a piece of us
we'll go start again and make it up.
but he'll come 'round,
of that I'm sure.
He won't stop,
until I'm buried in the dirt.

[chorus]
Tear it all down darling, we're running again,
oh, till they put us down and we raise our hands.
Tear it all down darling we're closing in,
oh, we can hold each other till the bitter end,
oh, we can hold each other till the bitter end.

[bridge]
tell me can you hear the thunder?

he's reaching out to drag us under,
oh, all we can do is hold each other,
all we do is hold each other.

[chorus]
Tear it all down darling, we're running again,
oh, till they put us down and we raise our hands
Tear it, tear it all down darling we're closing in,
oh, we can hold each other till the bitter end,
oh, we can hold each other till the bitter end.
[outro]
we can hold each other till the bitter end
