

Threads of Silence

Karise Eden

If i gave you every inch of me could you show me how if i learn to be more brave
i take a deep breath straighten up my back stand tall and walk along he said you could do anything but anything is nothing when you need a bit of helpin out you could go anywhere but anywehere is nowhere but when emptiness is where you stand holdin, holdin, holdin

the threads of silence
that lead me to your door
